

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE INFORMATION

IF YOU ARE THE VICTIM OF DOMESTIC ASSAULT, you can ask the city or county attorney to file a criminal complaint. You have the right to notification if prosecution of the case is declined or criminal charges are dismissed. You also have the right to go to court and file a petition requesting an Order for Protection from domestic abuse which could include the following:

1. An order restraining the abuser from further acts of abuse;
2. An order directing the abuser to leave your household;
3. An order preventing the abuser from entering your home (or a reasonable area around your home), school, business, or place of employment;
4. An order awarding you or the other parent custody of or visitation with your minor child or children; or
5. An order directing the abuser to pay support to you and the minor children if the abuser has a legal obligation to do so.
